

Context and Cross-References

The context you need to lead class discussions: Background material on each segment, the enduring questions that underlie the video issues, parallels in the social studies curriculum, references to widely used texts, quotations from famous figures.

Bridging the Gap in the Classroom

Activities to bring the issues to life and link them to the curriculum. Including:

