We collect certain information ("nonpublic personal information") about you and the members of your household ("you") from the following sources:

- Information you provide on applications or other forms, such as your social security number, assets, income, and property information;
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates or others, such as your policy coverage, premiums, and payment history;
- Information from your visits to the websites we operate, use of our mobile sites, applications, use of our social media sites, and interaction with our online advertisements; and
- Information we receive from consumer reporting agencies or insurance support organizations, such as motor vehicle records, credit report information and insurance claims history; and
- If you obtain a life, long-term care or disability product, information we receive from you, medical professionals who have provided care to you and insurance support organizations, regarding your health.

How We Protect Your Information

Our customers are our most valued assets. Protecting your privacy is important to us. We restrict access to personal information to those individuals, such as our employees and agents, who provide you with our products and services. We require individuals with access to your information to protect it and keep it confidential. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable regulatory standards to guard your nonpublic personal information. We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you except as described in this notice or as otherwise required or permitted by applicable law.

Information We Disclose

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about you, as our customer or former customer, except as described in this notice. We may disclose the nonpublic personal information we collect about you, as described above to our affiliates, to companies that perform marketing services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with which we have joint marketing agreements and to other third parties, all as permitted by law and for our everyday business purposes, such as to process your transactions and maintain your accounts and insurance policies.

Many employers, benefit plans or plan sponsors restrict the information that can be shared about their employees or members by companies that provide them with products or services. If you have a relationship with Foremost or one of its affiliates as a result of products or services provided through an employer, benefit plan or plan sponsor, we will follow the privacy restrictions of that organization.

We are permitted to disclose personal health information: (1) to process your transaction with us, for instance, to determine eligibility for coverage, to process claims or to prevent fraud; (2) with your written authorization; and (3) otherwise as permitted by law.

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

In addition, because you participate in our insurance program through your membership in the AARP, we will share basic participation information such as your name, address, policy number and status as a policyholder, with AARP and AARP's wholly owned subsidiary, AARP Services, Inc. We understand that AARP and AARP Services may use this information for a variety of purposes, such as analyzing member interests and monitoring member participation and satisfaction with the applicable insurance program. AARP Services and its affiliates may also share this information with other AARP service providers in order, for example, to inform you of additional AARP member benefits that may be of interest to you. We may also provide you with additional services or benefits through third parties as permitted by your policy with us. In order to provide such benefits or services, we may have to provide basic participation information to that service provider such as your name, policy number and address. If you would prefer not to have your information shared with AARP and AARP Services, or any other third party service provider, you may return to us the opt-out form set forth below.

Sharing Information with Affiliates

We will not disclose nonpublic personal information, as described above in Information We Collect, except with affiliates of Foremost as permitted by law including:

- Financial service providers, such as insurance companies and reciprocals, investment companies, underwriters, brokers/dealers; and
- Non-financial service providers, such as data processors, billing companies and vendors that provide marketing services for us.

We are permitted by law to share with our affiliates information about our transactions and experiences information with you. We will not share with our affiliates information we receive from a credit reporting agency or insurance support organization, such as motor vehicle records, credit report information and claims history.

Under the California Consumer Privacy Act ("CCPA"), California residents have the right to opt out of the sale of personal information to certain third parties. Although we do not currently share personal information in a manner that would be considered a sale under CCPA, you may still submit a request to opt out by calling us at 1-855-327-6548 or submitting a request through our CCPA Web Form.

Modifications to our Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to change our privacy practices in the future, which may include sharing nonpublic personal information about you with nonaffiliated third parties as permitted by law. Before we make any changes, we will provide you with a revised privacy notice and, if applicable, the opportunity to opt-out or, if applicable, to opt-in.

Website and Mobile Privacy Policy

Our Enterprise Privacy Statement includes our website and mobile privacy policies which provides additional information about website and mobile application use. Please review those notices if you .
